TOWN HALL MEETING ON 2010 COUNTY BUDGET

Residents invited to ask questions, share concerns

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisors Marina Dimitrijevic and Chris Larson are co-hosting a public meeting this Thursday to discuss the 2010 Milwaukee County Budget.

“I am looking forward to hearing from the residents of the 4th District on our 2010 Milwaukee County Budget,” Supervisor Dimitrijevic said. “There are many changes being proposed, and it’s important for me to discuss these changes with my neighbors before taking a vote on the budget.”

“Due to proposed cuts to important programs and services (including pool closures), transit fare increases, and cuts to wages and benefits, we are currently facing one of the worst budgets in Milwaukee County’s history,” Supervisor Larson added. “Given the County’s fiscal state, there are no easy solutions. I need to hear from constituents to make the best decisions as we move forward through this budget process.”

Who: Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic and Supervisor Chris Larson
What: Town Hall meeting on 2010 County Budget
When: Thursday, November 5, 2009, 6:00-7:30 p.m.
Where: South Shore Park Pavilion
2900 S. Shore Drive, Milwaukee, WI

Residents are also invited to attend Supervisor Dimitrijevic’s monthly listening session at Oasis (Organization for Active Seniors in Society), scheduled from 12:15-1:00 on Wednesday, November 11th. OASIS is located at 2414 W. Mitchell Street in Milwaukee. This event allows residents an opportunity to share comments with Supervisor Dimitrijevic after the County Board adopts a 2010 Budget, but before any vetoes from the County Executive are acted upon.

Supervisor Dimitrijevic believes in active representation and is approaching more than 100 public meetings with constituents since first being elected to the County Board in 2004.
